

VORTEX

What's beyond these walls I see?
Reality starts breaking, tearing at the seams
Forces clash where no one looks
A war that's always raging just beyond our reach
Something's changing in my sight

Can you feel them moving closer?
Can you see what I see now?
Tell me I'm not losing control

Who opened up my eyes tonight?
(Who showed me what was always there?)
I can't go back to being blind
(The truth was always)
Breaking through the skin of what we know

They're all around us, pressing in
Invisible armies wage their silent war
I never knew until today
The battle rages closer than my beating heart
Something's changing in my mind

Can you feel them moving closer?
Can you see what I see now?
Tell me you can feel it too

Who opened up my eyes tonight?
(Who showed me what was always there?)
I can't go back to being blind
(The truth was always)
Breaking through the skin of what we know
(Breaking through)

Light pierces through...
The veil grows thin...
They're getting closer
Light pierces through...
The veil grows thin...
We're not alone here

I see it all!
I see it all!
The war behind the walls!
The truth behind it all!

Who opened up my eyes tonight?
(Who showed me what was always there?)
I can't go back to being blind
(The truth was always)
Breaking through the skin of what we know
(Breaking through)
